

You Should Worry says John Henry Hugh McHugh

A "not-so-always politically correct" commentary is delivered by the humorous and likeable John Henry on a variety of experiences and adventures that takes place in his own life. He's not shy about telling how he see it. Amongst his subjects this time are Tango Lessons, Automobiles, Dieting, Being in Love, Snap Shots, Servants and more. Definitely, You Should Worry about laughing out loud if you read this in a place where silence is expected. (Summary by Laurie Banza)
